

LOUISVILLE

As the largest city in Kentucky, Louisville is home to a 125,000 sq. foot O'Neal Manufacturing Services (OMS) facility. Located near the Airport Industrial Park, the Louisville plant focuses on multi-step processing of components and welded fabrications for long-term OEM partners, including manufacturers in the aerial lift, material handling, heavy equipment and rail industries. Like all of our OMS locations, our Louisville facility is ISO 9001:2008 certified and has an extensive lineup of machinery to partner and develop strategic manufacturing solutions for you and your team.

Like all the facilities in the O'Neal Manufacturing Services family, our Louisville location is ISO 9001: 2008 certified and can develop comprehensive manufacturing solutions to support your next product launch.
